

finPOWER Connect Features

Industry Standard Architecture

finPOWER Connect is developed using the latest development tools and using industry standard architecture. This benefits you going forward knowing that your system will be relevant for years to come, and you will not be left with a out of date or unsupported system. finPOWER Connect can utilise a number of different database platforms meaning it can most likely fit within your existing IT infrastructure without the need for expensive new database licenses.